SPIRITS OF INDIA

INDIAN WHISKIES

A country given to its love of whisky is bound to produce some excellent drops. It all started in 1982 with Amrut Distilleries and today India is home to multiple award-winning single malts. Here is our pick of some of the best.

	per 25ml	per 50ml
Indri Trini Three Wood Single Malt Aged in wine, PX Sherry and Bourbon casks, with hints of black tea, caramelised pineapple with a whiff of oak, followed by vanilla and a honey finish	8.5	16
Paul John Brilliance Chomp Bars - lots of chewy caramel and chocolate here. Picks up from lively spice along the way, with a little bit of waxy orange peel on the mid palate	9.5	18
Amrut Peated Single Malt Smoky with orange peel drizzled with caramel and a dried fruit finish	11	21
Rampur Asava Tropical fruit notes, blackberry and plum followed with a faint hint of tobacco and spice	11.5	22
Paul John Oloroso Blackberries, honeycomb, dark chocolate bitterness, oaky spice and orange oil	13	25

Typical serves are 50 ml
